Sultan's Boat, Istanbul Modern Museum and Baklava Show

Departure from the hotel to the port to board historical "Sultan's Boats". During the sailing of 30 minutes, there will be live classical Turkish music instrument show called "kanun".

Drive to one of the most famous baklava production centers; Gulluoglu Baklava Center.

It consists of extremely thin sheets of pastry brushed with butter, then folded, stacked or rolled after being filled with crushed pistachios or hazelnuts or heavy cream. It is baked in the oven, and then soaked in syrup.

Gullugolu Baklava Center has a nice terrace where our guests will also enjoy the view. The owner or the manager of "Gulluoglu Baklava" will meet the guests and will explain the whole process with the short video about the history of the company.

The group will have the tour of the building to see how the world famous Turkish Baklava is prepared.
