Pick up from your hotel and morning or afternoon visit the ancient Agora the remains of the ancient agora of Smyrna constitute today the space of İzmir Agora Museum in İzmir's Namazgah quarter, although its area is commonly referred to as "Agora" by the city's inhabitants. Situated on the northern slopes of the Pagos hills, it was the commercial, judicial and political nucleus of the ancient city, its center for artistic activities and for teaching.

Visit Old Elevator

Building, overlooking the city of Izmir, the "Pearl of The Aegean Sea".

Then visit the Archaeological and Ethnographical Museums.

The Izmir Archeology Museum is one of the first built in Western Anatolia and contains a collection of artifacts of the Aegean Region. The museum's collection has been categorized as a regional museum rather than a local one because of the importance of its collection. The Museum is located in Konak, in the central part of the city. It is within walking distance of Konak Square. Return back to your hotel after the tour. Drop off at your hotel.
